

Application for Standing at the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

Instructions for the Single Collective Group Application Form

This is the application form to seek single party status for collective groups at the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. It is intended for Applicants that have organized themselves into a single collective group to apply as one party or for the purpose of seeking single party status. Single Collective Groups may have multiple individuals, groups or organizations represented under a single party. Another form is available to seek individual party standing. If you are not part of a collective group of applicants please fill out the “Standing Application Form for Individual or Single Organization/Entity Party” available on-line at www.mmiwg-ffada.ca under “Legal Notices and Documents”

Please note that criteria and applications rules are set out in the National Inquiry’s Legal Path: Rules of Process and Respect which will be available on-line and are replicated in the Notice of Applications for Standing at at www.mmiwg-ffada.ca under “Legal Notices and Documents”. All applicants must demonstrate that they:

- (a) Have an interest which is directly and substantially affected by the subject matter of Part I of the National Inquiry in which event the party may participate in accordance the Terms of Reference, companion Orders in Council and Administrative Decree.
- (b) Represent distinct ascertainable interests and perspectives that are essential to the discharge of the Commissioners’ mandate in Part I, which the Commissioners consider ought to be separately represented before the National Inquiry, in which event the party may participate in a manner to be determined by the Commissioners.

In addition to filling out this form, any additional written submissions accompanying the form shall not exceed five (5) typed double space pages on 8 ½ by 11” paper. Applicants can expand their answers to question in the form in the additional written submissions and are specifically asked to make:

- (a) a statement of how the applicant satisfies the criteria for standing set out in the Legal Path Rules of Practice and Respect.

It is recommended that you address how your interest is directly and substantially affected by the subject matter of Part I of the National Inquiry and how you represent distinct ascertainable interests and perspectives that are essential to the discharge of the Commissioners’ mandate in Part I.

It is also recommended that you outline and address your interests and knowledge if you are seeking Issue Specific Standing. A further description of what issues you are seeking standing is necessary.

Applications must be submitted to the National Inquiry by delivering a copy either to our Head Office in Vancouver at the address set out below or by fax to the National Inquiry’s Head Office at 1-604-775-5009 or by email at legal@mmiwg-ffada.ca to be received by no later than 5:00 PM PDT on April 10, 2017.
